

devices – all critical test measurements can be performed with just one high performance, innovative solution – Sprint Pro.

Regardless of the set up, whether the boiler is powered by gas, oil coal, wood pellets in residential or commercial environments. The Sprint Pro is the only tool you will need.

Manufactured in the UK to exacting standards, stay on the job longer with a reliable device you can trust. Multi-function and easy-to-use, it is designed to last with troubleshooting built in and triple filter water trap system for total hydrophobic protection.

The Sprint Pro flue gas analyser is BSI tested to EN50379-

1:2012 & EN50379-2:2012 and

Gas Escape Probe

Not just efficiency but safety too! Find customers gas leaks with our added probe.

All our Sprint Pro's come with gas escape probes as standard, they can be used to detect any leaks in the furnace vicinity or elsewhere.

Get the accurate readings your customers require with our

Slim line head design which allows easy access to all required spaces big or small

USB-C Connection

Never run out of charge unexpectedly or lose any of your important test reports

This latest generation USB-C connection and included USB-C cable, give easy charging at home or on the go, and also allow super-fast transfer of stored reports to the free-to-download Sprint Pro USB PC software